Announcement

WE FEEL confident that our present offering of Shorthorns, to be sold at South Omaha, Nebraska, Tuesday, November 11, 1919, will elicit a strong response from all constructive Shorthorn breeders. It is an offering of distinction as to breeding, and one that should prove noteworthy for the individual merits of the animals selling.

The blood of such great sires as Violet's Dale, Marengo Dale, Imp. Mentieth Silver Star and Ruberta's Goods prevails throughout the offering. Violet's Dale has just gone through the show circuit, defeating every bull opposed to him, having won eight grand championships, while his get were many times given the premier ribbons. Many of the best cows in this sale are in calf to his service.

On this occasion we wish to thank our fellow breeders for the strong support they have given us in the past, and to assure them that we are offering at this time the best collection of Shorthorns we have ever placed in a sale ring at public auction. Arrange to attend this sale if you are desirous of securing some of the best individuals the breed has ever produced. But whether you wish to buy or not, we shall be pleased to see you on the date of sale.

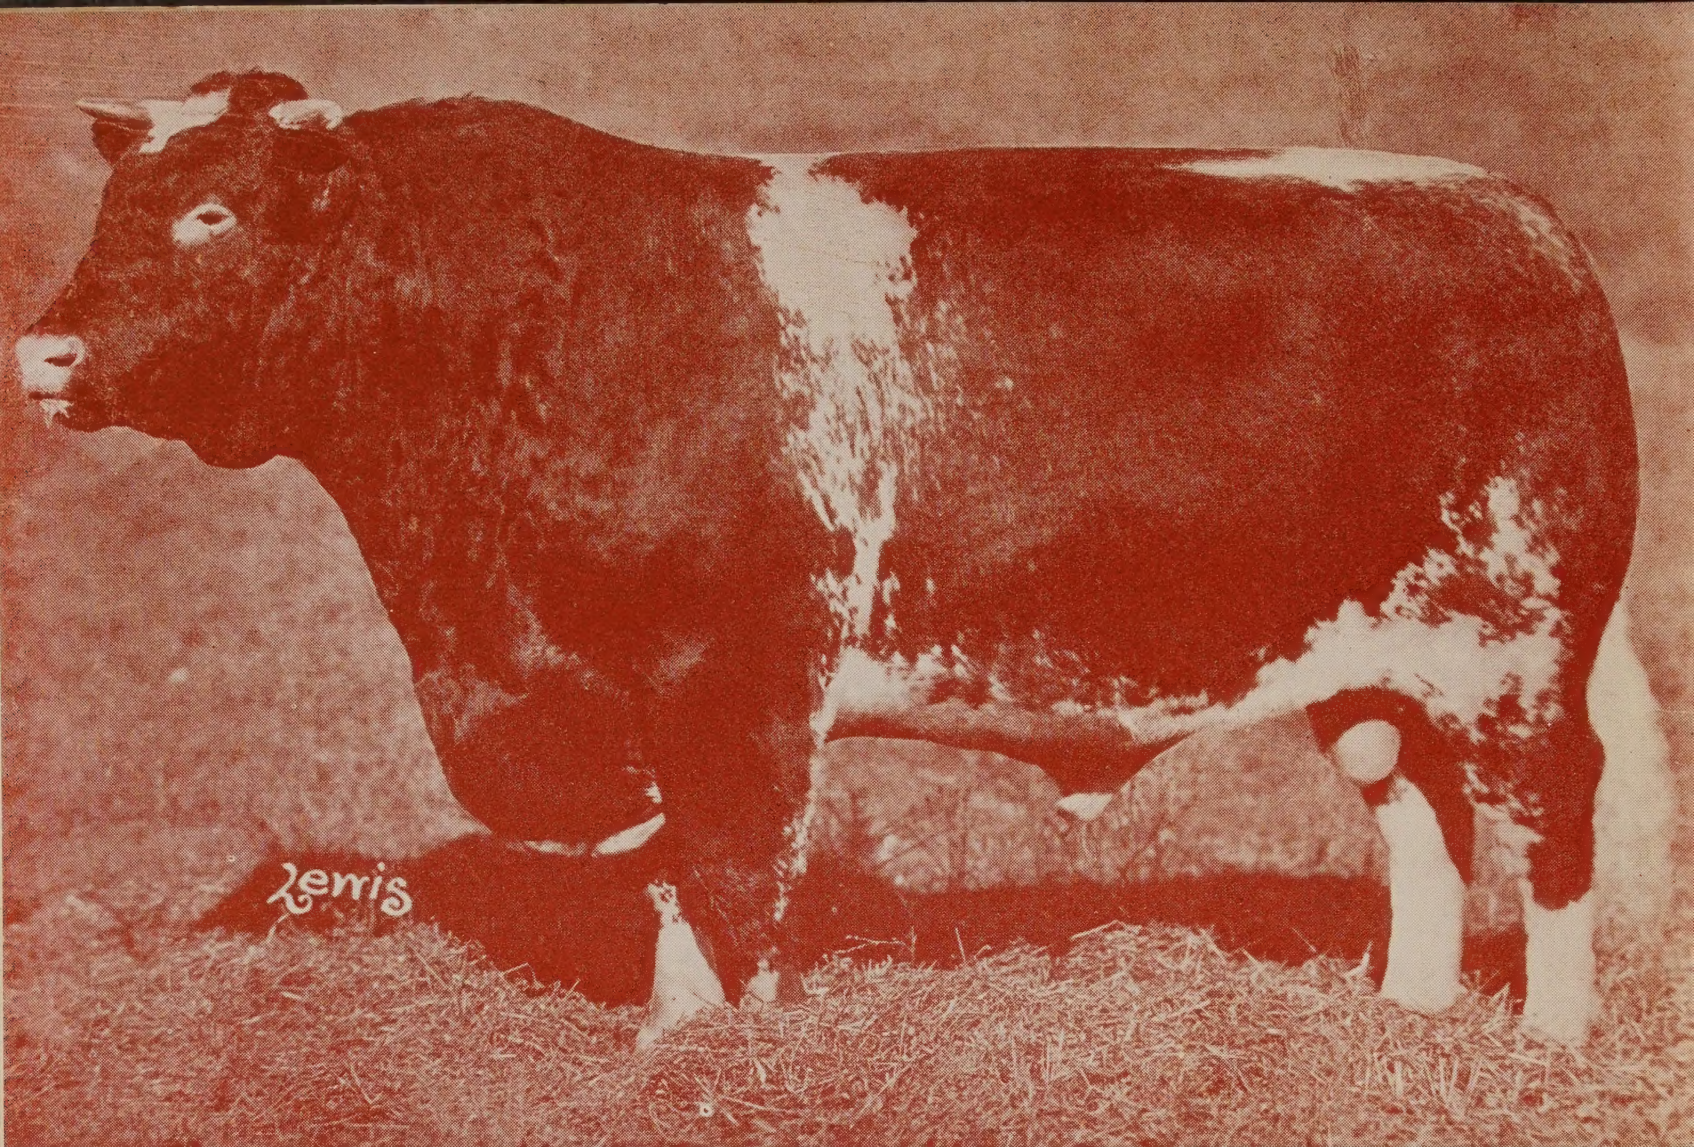

HOWELL REES & SONS,

Pilger, Nebraska.

LISTEN, MEN! Time can not wither nor custom stale the surpassing excellence of the grand old breed. Go out in the pasture and look them over. There they are, content and prosperous, those magnificent Shorthorns—thrifty, prolific, staunch and admirable. Who can deprive them of their innate value—what force of circumstances can make them less than they are? Humanity needs them—the demand never ceases, and there is a par value below which the Shorthorn will never drop. The margin is safe, and the stock exchange can not manipulate that margin.

If there's a safe bet in God's green pasturage, it's the noble, useful and NECESSARY Shorthorn!

WORD ABOUT Colonels Kraschel and Milne. To see these gentlemen in action is to observe a very good reason for the progress of the Shorthorn industry in America. Colonel Kraschel and Scotty Milne have done as much as any two men could well do for the advancement and development of the great breed. The work of such auctioneers should be given its just due, and we herewith take pride in extending them our very hearty appreciation. And we know that in this respect we voice the sentiment of our fellow-breeders.

THE firm of Howell Rees & Sons wishes prosperity and constructive success to all Shorthorn breeders. We particularly trust that every purchaser at this sale will take material with him that will make money for him, not only as to the individual negotiation at stake, but with respect to the herd-strengthening influence exerted by each animal in question.

Our cause is common. We must be mutually considerate; we must promote the advancement of the breed in its entirety and not strive to achieve merely personal gain. The spectacular single achievement is always very dazzling, but the security of all is the test of stability and an assured future.
